

About Hucklow Summer School 2014:

The core purpose of Hucklow Summer School is religious education: we focus on matters of religion and spirituality and intend to draw out and develop the potential of all participants. We aim to provide a balanced programme, offering a rich mix of activities for both the heart and head, and a variety of optional sessions showcasing a range of worthwhile activities which participants might "take home" and try out in their own congregations and communities. We also ensure that there are plenty of opportunities for relaxed fellowship and fun during the week.

Small Group Activities are at the heart of summer school and provide a safe environment for deep exploration and personal relating. Morning Theme Talks provide a contrast in style to the small group activities, stimulate dialogue on religious and spiritual matters, and allow participants to engage with the topic on an intellectual level. Summer School also provides opportunities for daily spiritual practice such as morning meditation and evening epilogues.

Hucklow Summer School brings fellow Unitarians together and allows them to get to know each other deeply and form lasting and meaningful connections. It is our hope that participants will be inspired and challenged to develop and promote high-quality religious education activities when they return home.

Hucklow Summer School Panel

The panel organises the programme and currently includes Caroline Blair, Kate Buchanan, Janet Costley, Stephen Crowther, Michael Dadson, and Christine Thompson.

Theme speakers

Each morning there will be a special theme talk based on one aspect of our theme. This year's speakers are Jane Blackall, Celia Cartwright, Ralph Catts, Maria Curtis & Michael Dadson.

Afternoon and Evening Sessions

Do let us know if you have any particular skills or abilities that you would like to share during the week (e.g. music, dancing, art and craft ideas, leading a workshop etc.) by giving some details on your booking form. Members of the panel will contact potential session leaders in early summer, after Summer School places have been allocated, to finalise the timetable.

Minister for the Week

Hucklow Summer School 2014

This year's theme is "The Authentic Self: Discovering the Real You"

Morning Engagement Group options for adults

Each Summer School attendee is part of a small workshop group which meets for two hours each day to explore a given theme. Please choose from the following:

A: The Conference of Birds with Rev John Harley and Claire MacDonald
Mapping myths and stories through drama, art and writing

We will begin and end this workshop outside, bringing our imaginations to an ancient flock of quizzical birds who embark on a mysterious journey on which they reach not an end, but a beginning. The Conference of Birds is an epic and poetic medieval Sufi story. We will explore its themes of fear, flight and understanding in the company of other art and writings about birds, becoming perhaps lighter on own feet and capable of flight, at least, in words and pictures. No previous experience of drama is necessary or knowledge of this book, although participants may wish to start exploring this story before they arrive.

B: The Art of Self-Recovery with Rev Rob Gregson and Kate Buchanan

We will spend the week living as dedicated Spiritual Creatives using a variety of artistic techniques in order to rediscover our creative passions and spiritual selves. Through collage, drawing, music and mini-sculpture, we will explore our spiritual journey. You don't have to be great at art to enjoy this class! Just come along and find out where your creative spirit may lead you.

C: Coming Home To Ourselves with Stephen Crowther and Kate McKenna

In this group, we will take a journey inwards, exploring the yearning for connection and belonging. We will look at our 'shoulds' and question their validity. We will look at identifying and engaging with the things that can help us to feel fully at home in ourselves and therefore in the world. We will journey using writing, discussion, reflection and journaling as our means of transport.

D: Identifying and living as your authentic self with Rev Winnie Gordon and Ned Prideaux

This group seeks to help us each to identify our authentic self and the barriers, including fears, to living as our authentic self. The emphasis of the week is on identifying and sharing who we really are rather than who we think we should be. Expect to reflect, create, share, listen, and explore your playful side.

E: Life is a rollercoaster, without the sickness! (12 – 16 yrs) with Jim Blair

A safe and inspiring journey where we will meet our heroes/heroines, hopes and fears.

We'll play together using games, craft, music, literature, technology, meditation and nature. No skills required, but you will need curiosity and willingness to be creative together. When you register I will contact you with more information, including your views on how we structure the programme. We will explore:

- How we identify and nurture who we really are,
- How do we face our fears and concerns and shine
- What we want and what do we need in our bag of magic to grow into awesome young people
- Consider how we remain respectful of others but also to be confident enough to ask for what we want
- How do I show up as me, with all that is happening around me?

F: One more step (5 – 11 yrs) with Carrie Boyce and Claire Maddocks

Exploring the theme of steps and footprints

These steps will signify journeys they have already walked along and explorations still to discover. It will include investigating barriers that may get in our way and teach us mechanisms to help us overcome them. We will discuss who may have provided the bridges to safe grounds and how we utilise both these people and spaces to grow both ourselves and our imagination. This will help us to be a part of our world as individuals and together.

Our group will explore the themes selected through a mix media of art, craft, drama, discussion, meditation, nature and poetry. We look forward to a week of fun, laughter and well being. We may all come as individuals, walking on our own paths but over the week we will walk together as one.

Afternoon and evening activities

There is a range of optional activities each day, provided by the participants including art, music and discussion. We are always delighted to see the variety of activities volunteered by the participants each year. If you would like to run a session, please mention this on your form.

If you missed the deadline please do contact us to find out if any remaining places are available!
